

Family

- Is there anybody you are really close to? Who/why?
- Do you find it easier to talk about important decisions with friends or with family?
- Would you prefer to have been brought up in a smaller or larger family? Why/why not?
- How would you like to help your family?

Transport

- Is having your own means of transport important to you? Why/why not?
- Which form of transport do you like least? Why?
- Can you tell me about the longest journey you have ever made?
- In the future, what different forms of transport do you think there will be?

C: (Responds.)

I: (Make brief responses and/or comments.)

I: Thank you.

Part 2 (2 minutes)

I: Now, Part Two. I'm going to read some situations. First situation (choose one situation from A).

A

- I'm your friend. I start.
"I get really nervous before exams. Have you got any tips for me?"
- We're friends. We live in the same house. I start.
"What about redecorating our house?"
- I'm a stranger in your area. I start.
"Can you tell me about the public transport system in your town?"
- I'm your boss, someone has broken the photocopier. I start.
"What do you know about this?"

C: (Responds.)

I: (Role-play the situation with candidate - approximately two turns each.)

I: Second situation (choose one situation from B).

B

- You're a tourist in my town. I'm a stranger. Ask me to take a photo of you with your camera. You start.
- We're friends. You're moving house. Ask me to help. You start.
- We're friends. You've lost a special book of mine that I lent you last week. Tell me. You start.
- You're in a restaurant. I'm your waiter. You think there is a mistake in your bill. You start.

C: (Initiates.)

I: (Role-play the situation with the candidate - approximately two turns each.)

I: (Role-play a third situation from A or B if time allows.)

I: Thank you.

Part 3 (4 minutes)

I: Now, Part Three. In this part of the test we're going to discuss something together. All right? (Hand over candidate's task sheet). Here's some pictures of personal luxuries. Let's discuss how important these things are to us and decide which one we couldn't live without. First we've got twenty seconds to think. (Wait twenty seconds). Why don't you start?

A luxury I do not want to do without

The image displays five different luxury items arranged around a central question mark. In the top left is a pink hairdryer. In the top right is a silver boombox with a yellow carrying case. In the bottom left is a set of jewelry including a diamond ring, a necklace, and a bracelet. In the bottom center is a blue and red mobile phone. In the bottom right is a collection of toiletries including a perfume bottle, a brush, and a container.

Part 4 (4 minutes)

I: In Part Four you are going to talk on your own for about two minutes. Your topic is (choose topic).

Topics

- A How weather affects the way we live.
- B An interesting time in your country's history.
- C The problems and benefits of being famous.

I: First think about it for thirty seconds and make some notes if you want. (Hand over piece of paper and pen/pencil.) So your topic is (repeat topic). All right? (Withdraw eye contact for thirty seconds. Leave tape running)

I: Ready? Please start.

C: (Talks on topic for about two minutes, with support when appropriate.)

I: (Ask a selection of follow-up questions as appropriate.)

Follow-up questions

A How weather affects the way we live.

- Do you think the weather affects everybody equally?
- When do you think is the best time of year for a birthday?
- If you could choose, would you live in a place with or without clearly defined seasons?
- How is global warming affecting the climate?

B An interesting time in my country's history.

- How interested in history are you?
- What are the best ways of teaching children history?
- How do you think people in the future will look back on this time period?
- If you could meet a historical figure, who would it be? What would you want to ask?

C The problems and benefits of being famous.

- If you could, which field of life would you like to be famous in?
- Why are we so fascinated with show business and celebrity?
- Do we respect famous peoples' privacy enough?
- Which famous person would you like to meet? Why?

I: Thank you. That is the end of the test. (Give candidate's name). End of test.
